

LETHUKUKHANYA HEALTH INSTITUTE/PROJECT

A Reputable Training Institute that offers education, training and skills in health, social and community development.

Registration N0: 1996/008320/08, NPO: 005-453
HWSETA accreditation N0: HW592PA0300008

A practical approach to health, social and community development.

A supportive environment for people who are striving to deliver effective skills and knowledge in health, social and community development.

“Looking Beyond Tomorrow”

Vision: “A leading health and social skills development provider in Southern Africa”.

Mission: “To provide short and long term accredited training programmes on health and social development in Southern Africa.

Values: To affirm and strengthen the role of Community Health and Social Auxiliary Workers as Health and Social Wealth Facilitators

We offer the following courses:

SOCIAL AUXILIARY WORK NQF LEVEL 5

Modules are as follows:

- South African Social Welfare Context
- Judicial System & Legislation
- Human Behaviour, Communication & Social Needs/Care
- Administration within Social Services etc.

CHILD AND YOUTH CARE WORK NQF LEVEL 5

Modules:

- Community Development
- Personal Development
- Child and Youth Care Work
- Community - Based Learning

ANCILLARY HEALTH CARE NQF LEVEL 1

Modules:

- Primary Health Care
- Health Promotion
- First Aid Level 1
- Disaster Management etc.

HOME- BASED CARE NQF LEVEL 1

Modules:

- Palliative care
- Nutrition
- Care of the young and the aged
- Care of the critically ill, people with disabilities and handicapped
- Communication etc.

X2 INTAKES PER YEAR

FROM OCTOBER TO DECEMBER FOR JANUARY CLASSES

FROM APRIL TO JUNE FOR JULY CLASSES

FEES AND PAYMENT METHODS

Fees cover the following:

- Manuals
- Facilitation
- Social Council registration fee
- Assessment
- Moderation

Child and Youth Care Work NQF Level 5

The course fee is R20, 000.00 for a year
Deposit is R 5,000.00 payable when registering.

The balance of R 15,000.00 payable in R 1.500.00 monthly instalments for 10 months

Ancillary Health Care NQF Level 1

The course fee is R 15,500.00 for a year
Deposit is R 3,500.00 payable when registering.

The balance of R 12,000.00 payable in R 1200.00 monthly instalments for 10 months.

Home-Based Care NQF Level 1

The course fee is R 5,500.00 for 69 days
Deposit is R 3,000.00 payable when registering. The balance is payable in full before the summative assessment.

Social Auxiliary Work NQF Level 5

The course fee is R 20, 000.00 for a year
Deposit is

R 5, 000.00 payable when registering.
The balance of R 15,000.00 payable in R 1, 500.00 monthly instalments for 10 months.

Method of training delivery

Five (5) days in a month theory (block training) three (3) weeks practicals for experiential learning at workplace.

Admission requirements

- A non-refundable screening fee of R200.00 is payable prior to the screening process

Courses requirements

- When registering, learners are encouraged to identify organisations in their localities for experiential learning
Lethukukhanya Health Institute will further assist with practical placement and mentoring.
- A certified copy of your Matric Results (this excludes health care related courses) Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) may be considered
- 3 certified copies of ID book.
- A Curriculum Vitae (CV)
- If you can bring all the above on the day of the screening, it will enable you to fill in the registration form.

REFUNDS

Payment can be deposited into this Account:

Account Name: Lethukukhanya/AHC Learnership
Bank:FNB

Branch: Bank City
Branch number: 250805
Account number: 62070 736 445
Type of account: Cheque account

10% of the deposit is deductible should a learner decide to cancel before the commencement of the course.

NB: NO REFUND AFTER THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE COURSE.

Our contact details are:

84 Helen Joseph Street Cnr. KrUIS
7th Floor, Office 729
The Markade Building
Johannesburg 2001
Tel: (011) 0366872
Fax: 086 232 5061
Mobile: 079 293 5010
Email: marym@lethukukhanya.org.za